Learn how to adapt child protection case management during Covid-19

On this course, you'll enhance your understanding of the heightened protection risks and vulnerabilities that children are facing around the world during the COVID-19 pandemic.

You'll learn how to adapt child protection case management and discover why it's vital that child protection caseworkers and other service providers work in partnership to make sure there is a collective response to protecting a child.

The course will provide examples of promising practice and will stimulate the exchange of ideas and experience between learners around the world.

 Register by accessing this link: <https://www.futurelearn.com/courses/covid-19-adapting-child-protection-case-management>

 Once in, please read the course information and click on the 'Join course for free' button to register.

This course is designed for child protection case workers and managers. It will also be of interest to anyone working as a front line professional or volunteers within government bodies, international agencies and national non-governmental organisations to provide services that can protect children during the COVID-19 pandemic. For example, educators and education personnel.
