Dear Dr. Uytico:

Greetings of peace!

The world is facing an unprecedented global health, social and economic emergency due to the Covid-19 pandemic. This pandemic has changed our lives in so many ways. Staying and working at home for our safety is our top priority.

In view of the new normal, each person gradually embraces the transition especially at work. Companies have adopted the online virtual transactions as they come with the demand.

ComArts, with its cause of continuous learning, commits even this time in educating professionals through webinars. This is because we believe that, according to studies, even online enhancement trainings increase employees' motivation, morale and increase efficiencies in their day-to-day job.

Hence, we are pleased to inform you that we are offering a free webinar on Creating Opportunities in a Time of Crisis to your Division.

Proposed time is at 10:00AM – 11:00AM on July 29, 2020. Please let us know should you affirm on this so that our team can give you the online registration link and the zoom link for the webinar. Please take note that this offer is only good for 100 participants.

We would appreciate if you will refer us to the person-in-charge.

Should you have concerns, please feel free to contact us through 09565984623 or 09065004070.

We are all in this together. Grace to you!

Sincerely,

Daryl Hannah Visitacion-Parrilla
