SUBJECT : 2021 Princess Maha Chakri Award Nomination

DATE : 03 November 2020

This is with reference to the letter from the Royal Thai Embassy on the request of the 4th Princess Maha Chakri Award.

The PMCA was established on the occasion of the 60th birthday anniversary of Her Royal Highness (HRH) Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn of Thailand in 2015. It aims to:

- honor HRH Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn for her outstanding achievements in the field of education and in the development of the quality of life, especially for the disadvantaged;
- honor highly dedicated teachers whose accomplishments make significant contributions to education and human development and who deserve international recognition;
- support and promote development of the teaching profession, as well as educational enhancement; and
- strengthen international relations in the field of education.

It is mandatory for each region to send at least one (1) nominee to the Department of Education International Cooperation Office. Potential candidates are still those who are still active in teaching or administration at the primary and secondary education levels (pre-tertiary), and who have inspired fellow teachers with their dedication to students in the country.

The general criteria require that nominees should

- come from SEAMEO member countries,
- be active in teaching or in education administration,

Office of the Director

- have generated developmental changes in students and inspired fellow teachers, and
- have outstanding achievements that generated benefits to education and human development.

The specific criteria and selection process are conducted by the Ministry of Education of each country. The Ministry of Education will be responsible for selecting awardees in accordance with the criteria for the award nomination. The Princess Maha Chakri Awards Philippine Selection Committee are composed of:

- Undersecretary who will serve as the Deputy Minister;
- Head, Bureau of Human Resources and Organization Development;
- Head, International Cooperation Office; and
- Head, National Educators Academy of the Philippines

The regions will do their respective selection of nominees using the criteria set by the awards:

1. Outstanding achievement which generate benefits to education and human development
2. Active in teaching or administration at the primary or secondary levels
3. Has inspired fellow teachers with their dedication to students in the country

One teacher from each Southeast Asian country will be selected as awardees.

Interested applicants are directed to submit hard and soft copies of the following requirements to their respective Department of Education (DepEd) regional offices (ROs):

- a. Updated Personal Data Sheet (CS Form 212);
- b. A 1500-word essay explaining why he/she should receive the award; and
- c. Matrix of awards and achievements (See attached matrix) relevant to the PMCA, accompanied by supporting documents (certificates of training need not be submitted). All acronyms need to be spelled out.

In this regard, we would like to request your good office to screen the submission and choose only one (1) nominee per region to the International Cooperation Office pending the release of the memorandum order from the Office of the Secretary on or before December 7, 2020.
