Chapter 17. Wrapping Up for CES Assessment Center Success

After optional retirement in 2018, I decided to spend my retirement years productively by writing this e-book to help all our struggling CES candidates pass the hardest stage of the CES eligibility process, the assessment center.

Please help me reach out to your school heads and qualified teachers who need this review course. I shall be very thankful if you can circularize it within your jurisdiction. We shall be both helping them in the process.

What is so unique about this book? It is the first and only review course in the country. It is very comprehensive, systemic, and strategically doable.

Interested CES candidates are invited to:
