The Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organization (SEAMEO) and the Government of Canada are calling for research entries on the 2021/2022 SEAMEO-Jasper Research Award with the theme, Addressing the Education Crisis: Intervention Programmes for Mitigating Learning Gaps and Learning Loss.

Research studies may cover one or more areas in overcoming the education crisis of learning gaps and learning loss as follows:

1. Strengthening student's well-being and mental health,
2. Adaptive evaluation and assessment components,
3. Teacher and training support,
4. Capacity building,
5. Family involvement, and
6. Economic issues related to education.

Guidelines for Eligible applicants:

1. A national of a SEAMEO Member Country only;
2. A holder of advanced degrees;
3. Not more than 55 years at the time of application;
4. Not currently associated with or employed by any of the SEAMEO Centres/Network or SEAMEO Secretariat;
5. Has not previously received any awards organized by SEAMEO Secretariat;
6. For studies/projects conducted by a team of researchers, only one author will be eligible for nomination. The submission should include a written note from the co-author(s) waiving any claim to the Award, in case the research is selected; and a statement indicating the nominee's level of responsibility (in percentage) for the research work; and
7. Physically fit to travel; certification by a competent physician may be requested before travelling.

The submissions must reach the SEAMEO Secretariat on or before August 31, 2021. The research submissions as abovementioned should be addressed to the SEAMEO-Jasper Research Award email at seameojasper-research@seameo.org.
