The Bureau of Learning Resources (BLR) will conduct a Mid-Year Needs Assessment and Consultative Conference from June 21 to 25, 2022 in Region XI (venue to be announced later) with the following objectives:

- a. Present innovations, initiatives, and accomplishments in the development, quality assurance, and distribution of learning resources (LRs);
- b. Discuss policies, issues, and concerns that impact management of the provision of LR; and
- c. Develop camaraderie among LR leaders and managers through teambuilding activities.

Given this, we are inviting the Chiefs of the Curriculum and Learning Management Division, Regional Education Program Supervisors, and two (2) selected Division Education Program Supervisors per region from the Learning Resources Management Section (LRMS) to attend this activity. Attached is the indicative program of activities for reference.

Aside from the power point presentation of the regional accomplishments, we are requesting a tarpaulin to be brought to the venue showing the unique programs, activities, and projects (PAPs) on learning resources properly titled and with a short background/description to be viewed during the gallery walk. Further, the presenters are requested to bring their own laptops and extension cords.

Traveling expenses shall be charged to local funds while board and lodging shall be shouldered by the BLR subject to the usual government accounting and auditing rules and regulations.
