1. The National Planning Conference (NPC) is an annual event that serves as a forum for the Planning offices and personnel in the Central, Regional, and Schools Division to collaborate and learn current educational planning trends. Due to the emergence of the COVID-19 Pandemic, the annual NPCs for 2020 and 2021 were suspended to pave way for key activities that will ensure the continuity of learning and the safety of DepEd personnel.
2. This year, the Department through the Planning Service announces the 2022 National Planning Conference on November 15-17, 2022, exclusive of travel time within Luzon. This NPC will focus on innovative responses and initiatives to address educational imperatives in the Basic Education Sector. With the support of the Department's new leadership and the adoption of the Basic Education Development Plan (BEDP) 2030, the field offices will be apprised about the operationalization of the BEDP and will make progress toward reaching DepEd commitments.
3. The theme of the 2022 NPC is Learning Recovery, Resiliency, and Unity which will focus on the Department's priorities through effective planning, program implementation, and monitoring and evaluation mechanisms. Specifically, this year's conference aims to
 - a. prepare the entire DepEd for the implementation of learning recovery plan;
 - b. orient DepEd field offices on the Department's current directions and priorities under the current administration;
 - c. ensure the alignment of the Regional Education Development Plan (REDP) with the national and international commitments and;
 - d. provide learning opportunities on relevant topics and trends on the use of evidence in planning, resource programming, and policy development.
