Re: Request for DepEd Endorsement of the Biopic "Oscar M. Alcaraz, Ang Boy Scout na Bayani"

Mahal naming VP Inday Sara:

While it started as our Company's way of contributing to the government's thrust "to foster the Filipino brand is to spark our sense of pride and reaffirm our strong sense of identity", which we quote from SONA 2022, it is beyond excitement that we offer our biopic "Oscar M. Alcaraz, Ang Boy Scout na Bayani" with a running time of 1 hr. 28 mins. to assist the Department of Education while it explores integrating mandatory scouting into the Filipino Peace Culture curriculum, per recent news reports, as scouting develops in the Filipino youth important values such as honesty, integrity, respect, and service to others, that are necessary in achieving the goals of government.

We understand that as early as 2012, DepEd Sec. Armin Luistro already issued an order to revitalize boy scouting in public schools, stating that it has been an effective co-curricular program in the leadership and values formation of the child. It is our hope that through this film, the vital task of molding invaluable Filipino values in eager young minds will be facilitated with the Filipino youth in emulating Oscar M. Alcaraz as a Boy Scout role model embodying their motto "Laging Handa", being the first civilian to be given the honor of being laid at rest at the Libingan ng mga Bayani, after his heroic death in unselfishly saving his drowning Scoutmaster. In his death, he was awarded the Presidential Merit Medal conferred by former Pres. Ferdinand E. Marcos on Sept. 11, 1970 at the Malacañan Palace.

DepEd eyes mandatory scouting in basic education curriculum

Janvic Mateo - The Philippine Star

May 12, 2023, 12:00am

The Department of Education (DepEd) is considering making scouting a mandatory part of the basic education curriculum, according to a report from the Philippine Star. The report states that the DepEd is currently in the process of reviewing the curriculum and is looking for ways to integrate scouting into the existing framework. The report also mentions that the DepEd is currently in the process of reviewing the curriculum and is looking for ways to integrate scouting into the existing framework.

MANILA, Philippines — After initially supporting the mandatory Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) program in the senior high school program, Vice President and Education Secretary Sara Duterte is now looking at integrating mandatory scouting in the basic education curriculum.

During a speech at the annual national council meeting of the Boy Scouts of the Philippines (BSP) in Palo, Leyte on Thursday, Duterte noted how the scout movement has proven itself as an integral part of the education system.

"This is something that we have been discussing within the Office of the Secretary of the Department of Education (DepEd) — on how to integrate mandatory scouting into the Filipino Peace Culture curriculum," she said.

She noted that the values that young Filipino boys learn from the Scout movement, including honesty, integrity, respect and service to others, are necessary in achieving the goals of government.

"The Marcos administration aggressively implements programs and projects that are aimed at fortifying our strength, our security and our stability as a nation," she said.

"Along with this is our vision of giving rise to a generation of Filipinos with an enduring love of country — a generation with the willingness and capability to help the government ensure that the Philippines becomes strong, secure and stable," she added.

In 2012, then DepEd Secretary Armin Luistro issued an order to revitalize boy scouting in public schools, saying that it has been an effective co-curricular program in the leadership and values formation of the child.

But it maintained that membership to the BSP is voluntary and shall not be made a condition for enrollment, transfer or clearance of students.

Duterte earlier supported the implementation of the mandatory ROTC program in senior high school.

But following a meeting with lawmakers in September, she said "it was clear to everyone that it is better to return ROTC in higher education since it was already there before."

"The basic education will focus on other parts of the curriculum that would instill discipline and love of country for our learners," she added.

In her speech, Duterte also urged the BSP to support their programs for the Filipino youth.

"Help us protect our children from sexual abuses, slavery, the lure of illegal drugs and the deception of the terrorist Communist Party of the Philippines and its armed terrorist group, New People's Army, as well as recruitment into extreme religious violent extremism," she said.

OSCAR M. ALCARAZ: ANG BOY SCOUT NA TUNAY NA BAYANI

The ETR Films presents the biographical film, Oscar M. Alcaraz: Ang Boy Scout Na Tunay Na Bayani, featuring the first civilian to be given the honor of being laid to rest at the Libingan ng mga Bayani (Heroes' Cemetery), in Fort Bonifacio.

Scout Alcaraz, then a student of the Eulogio Rodriguez Jr. High School in La Loma, Quezon City, was born on May 4, 1953. He died a heroic death when he unselfishly saved the life of his drowning Scoutmaster during a reforestation project at the La Mesa Dam in Novaliches, Quezon City.

Led by multi-awarded child performer Robert "Buboy" Tamayo Villar Jr., the film showcases the gallantry and heroism of Scout Oscar, and how he deserved the Presidential Merit and Medal conferred by then President Ferdinand E. Marcos on September 11, 1970, at the Malacanan Palace.

Directed by Antonio San Agustin, kdpp, the movie commenced in March 2023, both internationally and locally.
