Evelyn R. Fetalvero, EdD CESO IV
Regional Director, Deped Region VIII

Dear Dr. Fetalvero:

Happy New Year! I am pleased to invite you and your community of public and private school heads, owners, academic coordinators, and finance officers to attend "Diskarte: School Innovation Summit" on January 27, 2024 at the Santuario De La Salle in Bacolod City. As principal designer of this practical leadership program, I strongly encourage participation.

This collaborative activity between and among the Private Education Assistance Committee, Philippine Association of Private Schools, Colleges, and Universities and National Teachers College is intended to bridge school-based management (SBM) and school-based knowledge and innovation management (SKIM) in ensuring the quality, relevance, and sustainability of basic education.

Participants will earn graduate-level microcredentials and CPD points. Registration may be done through this link: <https://forms.gle/oKw51zbrSJUKFPJt6>.

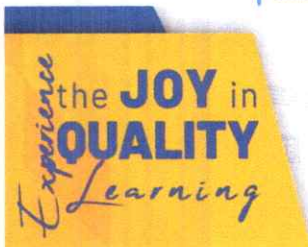

We hope that this opportunity will be maximized by education transformation agents in the Visayas. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Edizon A. Fermin, PhD

Dir. Evelyn R. Fetalvero
Regional Director
Department of Education Region 8

Dear RD Fetalvero,

I hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. I am writing on behalf of the Philippine Association of Private Schools, Colleges, and Universities (PAPSCU), a national association of private education institutions in the provinces. This is to seek the endorsement of the Department of Education Regional Office of the Eastern Visayas for our upcoming event, Empowering Education Executives (E3) in the New Reality: DISKARTE A School Innovation Summit. This will be held on January 27, 2024, at Sanctuario De La Salle, USLS Bacolod with attendees from all over Visayas.

Like DepEd, PAPSCU is committed to continuing its mission of providing relevant professional development programs for our members and private institutions. This year's E3 will focus on action and strategy, with a specific emphasis on three key education executives in schools: the school owner, the finance officer, and the academic leader. The theme, "DISKARTE," will explore innovative approaches to overcome obstacles to innovation and how schools can implement sustainable innovation strategies tailored to their unique contexts, especially with the upcoming implementation of the MATATAG Curriculum.

We believe that the endorsement and support of the Department of Education Region 8 would greatly contribute to the success of the upcoming PAPSCU E3 event. Your endorsement would not only validate the importance of our initiative but also help us reach a wider audience and extend the benefits of this professional development opportunity to more educators and educational institutions in the region.

This project was made possible with the support of the Private Education Assistance Committee (PEAC) ASPIRE and designed in collaboration with the National Teachers College Alternative and Lifewide Learning Institute (ALL IN) led by Dr. Edizon A. Fermin. Participants will be given graduate school credits for MA and PhD at the National Teachers College upon completion of the seminar as well as CPD units from PRC.

Attached is a brief introduction to the PAPSCU, E3, and the intended program for January 27, 2024.

For any further inquiries, please feel free to contact our Trustee and Chair of E3's Organizing Committee, Ms. Charis Christelle J. Go at charisgo@berkeley.edu.ph.

PAPSCU's Emerging Education Executives in the New Reality 2023-2024

Brief History

The Philippine Association of Private Schools, Colleges and Universities, Inc. (PAPSCU) was originally organized in 1952 and incorporated on May 8, 1956, under the name of the Philippine Association of Private Secondary Schools (PAPSS). When the Association grew, the name was changed to consider the different categories of the members. PAPSCU counts with members from the majority of the provinces. These members are wholly Filipino-owned and managed.

PAPSCU was accepted as a member of the Coordinating Council for Private Education Associations (COCOPEA) during the term of Dr. Jesus Jocson as President in 1977. The Ruby Anniversary Celebration of 40 Years was a reminder of what had been accomplished and the targets that have been yet to be achieved.

PAPSCU currently has 918 active members. With its members in strategic locations in the country, PAPSCU envisions being a significant driving force towards educational excellence and nation-building. It is committed to performing its mission as an association of private educational institutions with community impact through capacity building, advocacy, and policy research that can shape relevant educational reforms. It aims for quality, transformative education that develops ethical and responsible individuals who will lead, share, and serve the common good.

PAPSCU Empowering Education Executives in the New Reality

In support of the vision-mission of PAPSCU, the PAPSCU E3 (Empowering Education Executives in the New Reality) Project has been implemented to provide opportunities for member institutions to enhance the capabilities of their education executives in the past four years organizing 21 sessions onsite and online.

E3 in the academic year 2022-2023 was a success in conducting a mix of online and face-to-face workshops. Its seminar series "Di Pwede Ang Pwede Na! Energizing Schools with the Innovation Mindset" was its biggest physically done in three runs held in Luzon (Clark, Pampanga), Visayas (Bacolod City), and Mindanao (Cagayan de Oro City). There were a total of 1,046 attendees. The regional associations and their networks were PAPSCU's most significant asset in the success of these events. With its success in reaching out to both medium and small-sized schools, institutions, and associations, the PAPSCU E3 will continue to conduct relevant professional development programs for its members as well as other private institutions.

E3 2023-2024: DISKARTE A Schools Innovation Summit

This year's E3 will focus on action and strategy. The E3 will be a PAPSCU Schools Innovation Summit specifically targeting three key education executives in school: the school owner, the finance officer, and the academic leader. DISKARTE will focus on hurdling innovation obstacles and how schools can employ different innovation-sustaining strategies based on their contexts. PAPSCU envisions schools where innovation is the norm.
