This refers to the official communication from the Royal Thai Embassy, regarding the visit of Colonel Nantaporn Viravathana, Advisor to the Office of Her Royal Highness (HRH) Princess Maha Chakri Award Sirindhorn's Projects to the Philippines on January 28 – February 3, 2024 to visit the six (6) schools under the Collaborative Project between the Kingdom of Thailand and the Republic of the Philippines on Children and Youth Development under the Patronage of Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn. His Excellency Tull Traisorat and First Secretary Witrarut Piyavongsomboon will be joining the visit to the six (6) schools.

BACKGROUND

Over the past four decades, Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn has been working to improve the quality of life of children and youth in the Kingdom of Thailand. Her Royal Highness has initiated many projects addressing various aspects of development such as agriculture, nutrition, health, hygiene, vocational training, environmental conservation and cultural preservation. Her development work has reached the most disadvantaged children and families living in remote locations and under difficult living conditions without regard to race, sex, religion or nationality.

As an effective approach to children and youth development, Her Royal Highness's initiative has been expanding to improve the lives of children and youth living in neighboring countries. Through a school setting, holistic and sustainable development model has been implemented by teachers and the community with joint support from key sectors like education, agriculture, health and local administrations.

At present, there are 107 schools in ten (10) countries who have participated in the collaborative project. With the funding and technical support of Her Royal Highness, these schools have been applying Her Royal Highness's model in their contexts and have made progress in their schools. Many students now understand the value of safe food production, good nutrition, and health; they have improved their nutritional and health status.
