ADDITIONAL REMINDERS ON THE CONDUCT OF THE NATIONAL MARKET SCOPING OF SUPPLEMENTARY LEARNING RESOURCES FOR SCHOOL LIBRARIES AND LIBRARY HUBS AND THE PHILIPPINE BOOK FESTIVAL 2024

In connection with the conduct of the National Market Scoping of Supplementary Learning Resources for School Libraries and Library Hubs on April 24 to 27, 2024 at the Lime Resort Manila, Pasay City, with actual scoping activities to be conducted in the Philippine Book Festival at the World Trade Center, Pasay City, please be informed of the following additional reminders:

1. With the humid weather conditions in Metro Manila during the conduct of the two activities, please be mindful of all health considerations including but not limited to the following:
 - a. The main scoping activity requires legwork and physical movement; hence participants should be fit to travel considering the nature of the activity; and
 - b. Participants are advised to bring prescribed medications as well as umbrellas, and water tumblers or bottles to be constantly hydrated.
2. The dress code for April 25, 2024 is Filipino inspired. Comfortable modern Filipiniana, Barong Tagalog, or any regional-accented attires are recommended. Please refrain from dressing up in formal attire as such may be uncomfortable if worn during the hours dedicated for the scoping activity.
3. Attendance to the Online Pre-Activity Orientation on April 19 and 22, 2024 is required for all identified participants. This activity will include:
 - a. General guidelines and processes on scoping,
 - b. Product presentation by publishing organizations, and
 - c. Other discussions and presentation by the National Book Development Board.

For your information and guidance.
