Madam,

Greetings!

I am writing to inform you relative to an upcoming event of significant importance in our region and to respectfully request your support and permission for the participation of educators from the Department of Education (DepEd) Region VIII dubbed as, the "Mga Durungawan sa Kulturang Pilipino 2024-Visayas Leg," on JUNE 13-14, 2024 at Northwest Samar State University, Main Campus, Calbayog City, Samar.

The project is a comprehensive initiative aimed at promoting cultural education and fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation of Filipino rites, rituals, and essential cultural knowledge among educators and stakeholders. This event is a vital component of our commitment to enriching the teaching-learning process through culture-based education.

The objectives of this project are multifaceted; encompassing the development of competency learning resources integrated across the curriculum, the enhancement of educators' understanding and appreciation of Filipino culture, and the design of culture-based instruction plans for various subjects in the K12 Curriculum. Through presentations, discussions, and workshops, participants will delve into topics such as, Pilipino rites, rituals, and passages, with a particular emphasis on food production, sustainable agriculture, and tangible heritage reflective of Philippine flora and fauna.

The event will be conducted in collaboration with Provincial Tourism Council of South Cotabato, Inc., with the aim of engaging at least 200 participants, including teachers from various schools in the Division of Calbayog City and Samar Division, faculty members from the College of Education, and other interested individuals from relevant agencies. This is a live-out activity with free of charge registration. Thus, it is expected that participants shall shoulder their own food, transportation, and accommodation (if applicable) expense.

We believe that the involvement of educators from DepEd Region VIII will greatly enrich the discourse and outcomes of the event, fostering collaboration and knowledge-sharing among educators and stakeholders. Therefore, we kindly request your support in identifying and recommending suitable participants who have a keen interest in integrating cultural education into their programs and projects, or more specifically, on their instruction and learning resources.

Should you require any further information about the event or wish to discuss potential collaboration opportunities, please do not hesitate to contact via email: avincarl.cruzada@nwssu.edu.ph or cellphone number 09276433542 or with our Project Leader, catherine.rodriquez@nwssu.edu.ph with cellphone number 09691276807. Your support and participation in this endeavor are invaluable and we eagerly look forward to working with your agency for the advancement of cultural education in our region. Thank you and more power!

Sincerely,

AVIN CARL V. CRUZADA, MAED
